Attendees: Jennifer Ohlendorf, Judy Ballard, Tom Jozwik, Delbert Slowik , Norm Smaglik, Joan Arnett, Jim Ewig, Fr. Larry Chapman, Jen Ohlendorf, Eunice Frieseke, and Laura Abing. Excused: Michelle Hansen, Stephen Dodridge,

Review of May Minutes – Judy motioned to approve, Fr Larry seconded.

Teosinite delegation presentation –

- The delegation introduced themselves. David Goehner, Sandra McCabe, Sue Olsen presented. Sandy Swietlik also part of the delegation, but was not present.
- There is a trip itinerary
- In the past, the delegation did a Teosinte census. There were approximately 325 people back in the 1990s. David is estimating that's now approximately 250. Delegation would like to have new census done.
- It appears as the children get older, they are leaving Teosinte for bigger cities.
- There are a number of ex-Teosinte people that now reside in Hartford, CN and Baltimore, MD. These people send money back to their remaining family in Teosinte, and this causes.
- Teosinte Women's workshop is a major positive impact in Teosinte.
- The delegation will look at how to get more help building homes, etc
- Education – the delegation is looking at how to integrate the gospel into education.
- The St Seb's Girls Scouts will be sending friendship bracelets down. Sherry Rick would like Sue to bring back more info to intertwine into St Seb's school. Info to be used for course curriculum.
- The trip last a little less than 2 weeks. Aug 13-24 are the trip dates
- The delegations will be using SHARE. SHARE is an organization that helps coordinate the travels/agenda for various delegations.
- St Seb's kids have sent letters to Teosinite kids. The delegation is hoping to bring back letters from the Teosinte children back to St Seb's.

This is Norm's last meeting. Replacement yet to be announced
