Racism and the Church

Join us in studying Jim Wallis' book:

America's Original Sin: Racism, White Privilege, and the Bridge to New America. This book, written by a white evangelical minister who has been at the forefront of Civil Rights advocacy since the 1960s, will be a jumping-off point for our discussion issues of race, religion, and our community.

The discussion will extend over six weeks, with three meeting options each week. Sessions will be offered at Saint Catherine after Mass beginning September 25th, at Saint Sebastian at 4:30 pm on Sundays beginning September 25th, and on Tuesdays at 6:30 pm beginning September 27th.

(Childcare will be available for the Sunday afternoon sessions only).

Copies of the book are available in the parish offices for $12 or, if you wish, you can order a Kindle edition for $4.

We will use a Discussion Guide from Sojourners.

<https://sojo.net/sites/default/files/americas-original-sin-study-guide.pdf>

If you cannot attend all of the sessions, we invite you to join those you can. The reading schedule is included in the Discussion Guide.

Please RSVP to 414-453-7150.
